

Payment is due at the time of registration. Seating, dinner and CE credits will not be reserved without payment. All registrations are due by the published meeting registration deadline (usually at Noon one week prior to the meeting - please check the meeting description page).

Online registration is available only until the published meeting registration deadline (usually at Noon one week prior to the meeting - please check the meeting description page). Late registration can only be made by calling the BCDA Office at 410-560-0064.

Refunds are available until the published meeting registration deadline (usually at Noon one week prior to the meeting - please check the meeting description page).

Refunds for online credit card payments will be made by check only.

Refunds for cancellations made after the published meeting registration deadline (usually at Noon one week prior to the meeting - please check the meeting description page) will only be available if BCDA is able to fill/replace late cancellations with late registrants. BCDA makes every effort to replace post-registration deadline cancellations with members who wish to attend as late registrants. If late cancellations cannot be replaced, no refund will be issued.
